بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

Bismillah al-Rahman al-Rahim

All praise is due to Allah, and may His praise and peace be on Allah's Messenger, as well as on his family, companions and followers.

To proceed: We are approaching Ramadan, which is the month of the Qur'an, a month of reading the Qur'an in full multiple times and a month of blessings, a month of fasting and a month of goodness. So to make this event, we would like to present for all those praying and fasting a schedule that approximates the Qur'an reading schedules of the pious predecessors (may Allah be pleased with them). These are distinct from the Juz' divisions which stop in certain places that interrupt a message or passage since they are only concerned with the word-count. And Allah knows best.

I made the reading schedules according to what I have read and heard. I then arranged them, placing the first one for those who are striving to do the maximum and the last for those who are doing the minimum, with a number of levels between the two.

I ask Allah to raise our level to the high ones, to enable us to reach the level of the truthful ones, and to make us those who race and rush forward to good, especially in this month of blessings.
